El Puntido Gran Reserva 2015

97pts

"Still youthful in expression, the 2015 Gran Reserva El Puntido opens with red fruit and fresh plum alongside balsamic hints, fine oak and touches of thyme and gentle camphor. Dry and expansive on the palate, it shows soft, polished tannins that add subtle grip and energy between ripe fruit and menthol tones. Broad and juicy through the mid-palate, aging nuances emerge beneath the fruit. The wine remains primary and will benefit from additional bottle time."
