

Bodegas Breca
Breca 2018

JEB DUNNUCK
92pts

"The 2018 Breca is a richer, more concentrated, yet still balanced Garnacha with lots to love. Blackberries, licorice, roasted herbs, and hints of mulled cherries all emerge on the nose, and it's medium to full-bodied, with a great mid-palate, present tannins, and a terrific finish. It would compete nicely in a blind lineup of Châteauneuf du Pape. Drink it over the coming 5-7 years."
