

Señorío de San Vicente
San Vicente 2018

TimAtkin^{MW}
93pts

"First made in 1991, Señorío de San Vicente is a single vineyard red from La Canoca in San Vicente de la SonsierSa, entirely made with an old "peludo" clone of Tempranillo. Inky, bold and assertively oaked, it's a wine with both eyes on the future. Serious, layered and well structured, it has lots of ripe blackberry and blueberry fruit, sinewy tannins and a spicy, palate-coating finish."

Rioja Report 2022

Señorío de San Vicente
San Vicente 2018

TimAtkin^{MW}
93pts

"First made in 1991, Señorío de San Vicente is a single vineyard red from La Canoca in San Vicente de la SonsierSa, entirely made with an old "peludo" clone of Tempranillo. Inky, bold and assertively oaked, it's a wine with both eyes on the future. Serious, layered and well structured, it has lots of ripe blackberry and blueberry fruit, sinewy tannins and a spicy, palate-coating finish."

Rioja Report 2022

Señorío de San Vicente
San Vicente 2018

TimAtkin^{MW}
93pts

"First made in 1991, Señorío de San Vicente is a single vineyard red from La Canoca in San Vicente de la SonsierSa, entirely made with an old "peludo" clone of Tempranillo. Inky, bold and assertively oaked, it's a wine with both eyes on the future. Serious, layered and well structured, it has lots of ripe blackberry and blueberry fruit, sinewy tannins and a spicy, palate-coating finish."

Rioja Report 2022

Señorío de San Vicente
San Vicente 2018

TimAtkin^{MW}
93pts

"First made in 1991, Señorío de San Vicente is a single vineyard red from La Canoca in San Vicente de la SonsierSa, entirely made with an old "peludo" clone of Tempranillo. Inky, bold and assertively oaked, it's a wine with both eyes on the future. Serious, layered and well structured, it has lots of ripe blackberry and blueberry fruit, sinewy tannins and a spicy, palate-coating finish."

Rioja Report 2022

