Alomado 2019

JEB DUNNUCK

94pts

"The 2019 Alomado is darker and richer, with chocolaty red and black fruits as well as gorgeous spring flowers, violets, and sappy herb notes developing with time in the glass. Medium to full-bodied on the palate, it has outstanding purity, silky tannins, and a great finish. It's already drinking nicely today yet should easily evolve for 10-15 years."
