Prado Enea Gran Reserva 2015

Wine Spectator
Top100
Wines of the Year 2022 #53
94pts

"Well-tailored in an understated way, this harmonious red is plushly creamy on the palate, like fine cashmere, showing seamless integration of the sculpted tannins with finely detailed flavors of black cherry and black plum reduction, sandalwood, cedar, green olive, espresso crema and mineral smoke and iron. Long and lightly juicy on the refined finish. Tempranillo, Graciano, Manzanillo and Garnacha. Drink now through 2030."
