"Bright onion skin color. Displays incisive, mineral-driven aromas of fresh red berries, orange zest, honeysuckle and a hint of white pepper. Dry, nervy and sharply focused on the palate, showing superb clarity and cut to its tangy redcurrant, blood orange and rhubarb flavors. Finishes taut and impressively long, displaying an emphatic mineral quality and lingering floral and mineral notes. Is there another rosé on the market and where near the price that delivers as much finesse as this one? I doubt it."
